

AUGUST 2018 READER'S CAMP

Begins August 20, 2018

For grades 5-8 at Link Education in Hyattsville...

Reading toolkit for reluctant readers with a focus on phonemic awareness, automaticity and fluency

Students will have hands-on experience using multiple modalities to build their individual reading toolkits. Parents and community members will be invited to view final presentations at the conclusion of camp.

Aug 20 - Aug 31

Tuition and fees: $250/week (minimum 5 students) plus transportation and meals.

The camp instructor, Geneen Massey, has 17 years of teaching experience with a focus on journalism, reading, and English for speakers of other languages. She has taught with Miami Carol City Senior High, Baltimore Community College (PG-Refugee Assistance Program), and Johns Hopkins-SAIS. Geneen earned an M.A.T. from World Learning, School for International Training, in 2011. Geneen also holds a certificate in the Wilson Reading System and has passed the Maryland PRAXIS in the teaching of reading, 6-12. Private tutoring clients have included middle school age through adult learners.
